Conference venue: All sessions of the conference take place at the Porczyński Art Gallery, also known as the John Paul II Collection Museum, (street address: plac Bankowy 1) in Warsaw, entrance from Elektoralna street. The nearest metro station is Ratusz Arsenal.

Registration: at the conference site from 8 to 9 a.m. on May 28

Welcome: May 28th, at 7:30 p.m. at the Kazimierzowski Palace on the main campus of the University of Warsaw (Senate Lobby and Złota Hall); tickets will be distributed at registration

Lunches: served at the conference site; tickets distributed at registration

Conference dinner: May 30 at 7:30 p.m. at the conference venue

Internet: Wireless connection will be available on the conference site.

Getting around: Taxis are available directly at the exit doors of all airport terminals (transportation offered by unauthorized persons is neither cheap nor safe). Taxi prices vary between the companies (approx. 2.80 PLN per km day rate, with 50% late night and weekend surcharge). Public transport is well developed and reliable. Bus, tram and metro tickets are available from vending machines (English language option is available) at most stops and from newspaper stands. Tickets should be validated in a bus (tram) or at metro stations. Traveling by metro is strongly recommended, as there are a lot of road works close to the conference site.

ticket type	price in PLN
single-ride	3.60
40-min time limit	3.80
1-day pass	12.00
3-day pass	24.00

For speakers: Multimedia projectors are available at the conference site. Please send your talks in PDF format via email to planck12@fuw.edu.pl well before your session starts. Plenary speakers wishing to enhance their presentations by multimedia features available only on their machines may use their own laptops; please indicate this by sending an email to planck12@fuw.edu.pl.

Contact: Email address of the conference is planck12@fuw.edu.pl. The Institute of Theoretical Physics can be contacted by phone +48 22 5532277 or fax +48 22 6219475. Problems that should be taken care of without delay may be referred to Krzysztof Turzyński, cell +48 607079706.
